Subject to the preceding provisions of this Article and unless the context requires otherwise, words or expressions defined in the Act (but excluding any statutory modification thereof not in force on the date on which these Articles become binding on the Company) shall bear the same meaning in the Articles.

References to an Act of Parliament are references to that Act as amended or re-enacted from time to time and to any subordinate legislation made under it.

The headings in these Articles shall not be taken as part of them or in any manner affect the interpretation or construction of the same.

2. The Company's name is Multiple Sclerosis International Federation (and in this document it is called "the Company").
3. The Company's registered office is to be situated in England.

4. The objects for which the Company is established are to support and relieve persons affected by multiple sclerosis and allied conditions worldwide by: -
 - 1) Promoting, stimulating and encouraging scientific research worldwide for the public benefit by the dissemination of information and knowledge into the causes of and cure and treatment for multiple sclerosis and allied conditions with the aim of eliminating multiple sclerosis;
 - 2) Aiding, supporting and relieving persons who are affected by multiple sclerosis and allied conditions, to encourage them in every way possible to achieve their full potential as members of society by improving their quality of life;
 - 3) Providing information, advice and support to further the development and work and promote the efficiency and effectiveness of voluntary national multiple sclerosis organisations or the formation of such organisations;
 - 4) Educating the general public about multiple sclerosis by, amongst other things, collecting and disseminating scientific and educational information relating to multiple sclerosis;
 - 5) Such other charitable purposes as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion from time to time decide.
5. In furtherance of the objects set out above but not otherwise the Company may exercise the following powers:-
 - (1) to make grants and loans to (whether out of income or capital and upon such terms and conditions (if any) as to interest, repayment, security or otherwise) or to guarantee money or to use the assets of the Company as security for the performance of contracts entered into by, any person, charity, association, company, local authority, administrative or governmental agency or public body as may be thought fit for or towards charitable purposes in any way connected with or calculated to further the objects of the Company;
 - (2) to award scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries or maintenance allowances tenable at any school, university or other educational establishment approved by the Trustees;
 - (3) to organise or make grants towards the cost of others organising meetings, lectures, conferences, broadcasts or courses of instruction;
 - (4) to promote the provision of medical aid, rehabilitation, advice, counseling and guidance;
 - (5) to promote or carry out research;
 - (6) to produce, publish and distribute (whether gratuitously or not) or to make grants towards the cost of others producing, publishing or distributing material in any form including books, pamphlets, reports, journals, films, tapes, video tapes, programmes or web-based material that may be deemed desirable for the promotion of the objects of the Company or for the purpose of informing contributors and others of the needs or progress of the Company;
 - (7) to accept any gifts, endowments, legacies, bequests, devises, subscriptions, grants, loans or contributions of any other kind of money or property of any kind including contributions subject to special trusts or conditions; provided that in relation to any contributions subject to any special trusts or conditions the Company shall hold and apply the same in accordance with the trusts and conditions on which they were transferred and shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner allowed by law, having regard to such trusts;

- (8) to raise funds for the Company by personal or written appeals (whether periodical or occasional), public meetings, public fund-raising or otherwise as may from time to time be deemed expedient; provided that in raising funds the Company shall not undertake or carry out any trading activities unless authorised by these Articles or by law to do so;
- (9) to carry out any trade insofar as (a) the trade is exercised in the course of carrying out the primary objects of the Company or (b) the trade is temporary or ancillary to the carrying out of the objects of the Company or (c) the profits of such trade are not liable to tax;
- (10) to operate bank accounts in the name of the Company and to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills, cheques and other instruments;
- (11) to invest any moneys of the Company not immediately required for its purposes in or upon such investments, securities or property of any other kind and situated anywhere in the world whether involving liabilities or producing income or not as may be thought fit subject nevertheless to such conditions (if any) and such consents (if any) as may for the time being be imposed or required by law;
- (12) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary for the promotion of its objects and to maintain, manage, construct and alter any buildings or erections and to equip and fit out any property and buildings for use;
- (13) to make planning applications, applications for consent under bye-laws or building regulations and other like applications;
- (14) subject to such consents as may be required by law to sell, let, mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or assets of the Company;
- (15) subject to such consents as may be required by law to borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company on such terms and on such security (if any) as may be thought fit;
- (16) to employ, engage or retain the services of such persons as may be necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company on such terms as may be thought fit and to make all reasonable provisions for the payment of pensions and superannuation to employees, their families and other dependents;
- (17) to delegate upon such terms and at such reasonable remuneration as the Company may think fit to professional investment managers ("the Managers") the exercise of all or any of its powers of investment provided always that:
 - (a) the Managers shall be authorised to carry on investment business under the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
 - (b) the delegated powers shall be exercisable only within clear policy guidelines drawn up in advance by the Company;
 - (c) the Managers shall be under a duty to report promptly to the Company any exercise of the delegated powers and in particular to report every transaction carried out by the Managers to the Company within 14 days and to report regularly on the performance of investments managed by them;
 - (d) the Company shall be entitled at any time to review, alter or terminate the delegation or the terms thereof;

- (e) the Company shall be bound to review the arrangements for delegation at intervals not (in the absence of special reasons) exceeding 12 months but so that any failure by the Company to undertake such reviews within the period of 12 months shall not invalidate the delegation;
- (f) the Company shall be liable for any failure to take reasonable care in choosing the Managers; fixing or enforcing the terms upon which the Managers are employed; requiring the remedy of any breaches of those terms and otherwise supervising the Managers but otherwise shall not be liable for any acts and defaults of the Managers;
- (18) to permit any investments belonging to the Company to be held in the name of any bank or company as nominee for the Company and to pay any such nominee reasonable and proper remuneration for acting as such;
- (19) to pay out of the funds of the Company the cost of any premium in respect of any insurance or indemnity to cover liability of the Board or any Trustee which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to them, in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which they may be guilty in relation to the Company provided that any such insurance or indemnity shall not extend to any claim arising from criminal or willful or deliberate neglect or default on the part of the Board (or any Trustee) and provided also that any such insurance shall not extend to the costs of an unsuccessful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against the Trustees in their capacity as directors of the Company;
- (20) to insure the property of the Company against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the Company when required;
- (21) to set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure;
- (22) to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of any charities, companies or associations in any way connected with the purposes of the Company or calculated to further its objects;
- (23) to act as trustee of any special charitable trust whether established by the Company or otherwise and generally to undertake, act as trustee of and execute any charitable trust or institution which may lawfully be undertaken by the Company and may be conducive to its objects;
- (24) to establish and control or jointly with others aid in the establishment and control of one or more companies to assist, or act as agents for, or trading subsidiaries of, the Company;
- (25) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities operating in furtherance of the objects of the Company or similar charitable purposes and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (26) to amalgamate with any companies, institutions, societies, trusts or associations which are charitable at law and have objects altogether or mainly similar to those of the Company and prohibit the payment of any dividend or profit to, and the distribution of any of their assets amongst, their members at least to the same extent as such payments or distributions are prohibited in the case of Members of the Company by these Articles;
- (27) to enter into contracts to provide services to or on behalf of other bodies;
- (28) to pay out of the funds of the Company the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company;
- (29) to do all such other lawful things as shall further the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them.

6. (1) The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects as set forth in these Articles and no part shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit, to the Members but:
- (a) Members who are not Trustees may be employed by or enter into contracts with the Company and receive reasonable payment for goods or services supplied;
 - (b) Members (including Trustees) may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Company;
 - (c) Members (including Trustees) may be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Company;
 - (d) Members who are not Trustees but who are beneficiaries may receive charitable benefits in that capacity.
- (2) A Trustee must not receive any payment of money or other Material Benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the Company except:
- (a) as mentioned in Articles 5(19) regarding insurance premiums, 6(1)(b) regarding interest, 6(1)(c) regarding rent or 6(3) regarding goods or services;
 - (b) subject to the written authorisation of the Board, reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in running the Company including attendance at meetings of the Board (or its committees or sub-committees or general meetings);
 - (c) an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Company (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings);
 - (d) payment to any company in which a Trustee has no more than a 1 per cent shareholding;
 - (e) in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written approval of the Charity Commission for England and Wales in advance).
- (3) Any Trustee (or any firm or company of which a Trustee is a member or employee) may enter into a contract with the Company to supply goods or services in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if:
- (a) the goods or services are actually required by the Company;
 - (b) the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in Article 6(4) below;
 - (c) no more than one half of the Trustees are subject to such a contract in any financial year.
- (4) Whenever a Trustee has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting of the Board or a committee that has been duly appointed by the Board, the Trustee concerned must:
- (a) declare an interest at or before discussion begins on the matter;

- (b) withdraw from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
 - (c) not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting;
 - (d) withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.
7. The liability of the Members is limited.
8. Every Full Voting Member undertakes to contribute such amount as may be required (not exceeding £10) to the Company's assets if it should be wound up while it is a Full Voting Member or within 1 year afterwards, for payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before it ceases to be a Full Voting Member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.
9. If the Company is wound up or dissolved and after all its debts and liabilities have been satisfied there remains any money or property it shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Company, but shall be given or transferred to some other charity or charities having objects similar to or including the objects of the Company; and which prohibits the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company by Article 6 above, chosen by the Full Voting Members at or before the time of dissolution and if that cannot be done then to some other charitable object.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMPANY

10. The number of Members with which the Company proposes to be registered is unlimited.
11. The Full Voting Members shall be the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association and such other persons as the Board shall admit to membership as a Full Voting Member from time to time.
12. The Associate Non-Voting Members shall be admitted to membership by the Board.
13. The Company may from time to time resolve upon the creation of other classes of members of the Company (including honorary members) provided that the rights of such other classes of members do not extend to voting at general meetings. Such categories of membership may be under whatever title or nomenclature the resolution may specify and may bestow upon the persons concerned such rights, privileges, duties and obligations (except the right to vote at general meetings) as may be specified in the resolution.
14. Except in respect of the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association, every application for membership shall be in writing signed by or on behalf of the applicant in such form as the Board may from time to time determine.
15. (1) The Board shall admit to membership organisations as it shall think fit and the Board may from time to time prescribe (and vary) criteria for membership. The Board shall not be obliged to give reasons for refusing to accept any organisation as a Member.
- (2) In respect of Full Voting Members, the Board can accept as a Full Voting Member more than 1 organisation from each country.
- (3) In respect of Associate Non-Voting Members, the Board can admit more than 1 organisation from each country.

16. The Board may in its discretion levy subscriptions on all or any classes of Members at such rates as it shall determine and may levy subscriptions at different rates for different categories of Members including Members of the same class.
17. Membership shall not be transferable and a Member shall cease to be a Member:-
 - (1) in the case of an organisation, if it ceases to exist;
 - (2) by giving 6 months notice in writing to the Company Secretary of the Member's intention to resign. The Member is deemed to have resigned 6 months after the date the letter of resignation is received at the Office providing after resignation the number of Full Voting Members is not less than 2;
 - (3) by two-thirds vote of all the Full Voting Members at a general meeting of the Company for any reason which may seem proper to the Full Voting Members in their absolute discretion. The Member whose membership is being determined shall be given the opportunity to be heard and/or present that Member's case to the Company. If the Member is a Full Voting Member it shall not be entitled to vote;
 - (4) unless otherwise agreed by the Board, if any subscription or other sum payable by the Member is not paid on the due date and remains unpaid 1 month after notice is served on the Member on behalf of the Board informing the Member that it will be removed from the membership if it is not paid. The Board may readmit to membership of the Company any person or organisation removed on this ground on the Member paying such part of the sum due as the Board may determine;
 - (5) at the discretion of the Board if the Member shall not have attended any of the last three biennial general meetings of the Company either in person or in accordance with Article 38 (relating to telephone conferencing) or by proxy;
 - (6) if the Member shall have moved from its last known address recorded in the register of Members of that class more than 3 months previously without giving a new address for correspondence.

PATRONS

18. The Board may in its discretion appoint any person to be a patron of the Company (and remove any patron) on such terms as they shall think fit.
19. A patron shall have the right to attend and speak (but not vote) at any general meeting of the Company and to be given notice of general meetings as if a Member and shall also have the right to receive accounts of the Company when available to Members.

GENERAL MEETINGS

20. The Company shall in alternate years hold a biennial general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 28 months shall elapse between the date of one biennial general meeting of the Company and that of the next. Biennial general meetings shall be held at such times and places as the Board shall determine.
21. All general meetings other than biennial general meetings shall be called general meetings. The Board may call general meetings and, on the requisition of Full Voting Members holding not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all Members, shall within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition convene a general meeting for a date not later than 8 weeks after the deposit of the requisition.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

22. A biennial general meeting or a general meeting, called for the passing of a special resolution appointing a person or persons as a Trustee or Trustees, shall be called by at least 40 clear days' notice. All other general meetings shall be called by at least 14 clear days' but not more than 60 days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed;
- (1) in the case of an biennial general meeting, by all the Full Voting Members entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; and
 - (2) in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of Full Voting Members having a right to attend and vote at such a meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Full Voting Members.
23. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of a biennial general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. The notice shall also contain a statement setting out the right of Members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Act and these Articles. The notice shall be given to all Members, Trustees, patrons and the auditors.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

24. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Two fifths (rounding fractions up) of the total number of Full Voting Members as represented by their Voting Delegates or proxies shall constitute a quorum.
25. If a quorum is not present within 1 hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such date, time and place as the Board may determine.
26. The President or in his/her absence some other Trustee nominated by the Board shall preside as chairperson of the meeting, but if neither the President nor such Trustee (if any) be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chairperson and, if there is only 1 Trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall be chairperson.
27. If no Trustee is willing to act as chairperson, or if no Trustee is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Voting Delegates present shall choose one of their number to be chairperson.
28. At the start of all general meetings of the Company, the names of the delegates appointed by the Full Voting Members (including Voting Delegates) and Associate Non-Voting Members shall be submitted to the chairperson of the meeting as the first item of business after the meeting has convened.
29. (1) A Trustee shall be entitled to attend and speak (but not vote unless a Full Voting Member) at any general meeting.
- (2) Each Associate Non-Voting Member shall be entitled to appoint up to three delegates and up to three alternate delegates to represent it at general meetings. Any or all of the delegates appointed shall be entitled to attend general meetings and shall have the right to be heard at general meetings but not to vote. The names of such delegates shall be submitted to the Company Secretary in the form prescribed under Article 40 or as near to it as circumstances will admit, or in any other form which is usual or which the Board may approve.
30. The chairperson may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least 30 clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

31. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:
 - (1) by the chairperson; or
 - (2) by at least 2 Full Voting Members as represented by their Voting Delegates or their proxies; or
 - (3) by a Full Voting Member (as represented by its Voting Delegate) or Full Voting Members (as represented by their Voting Delegates) or their proxies and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Full Voting Members having the right to vote at the meeting.
32. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
33. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairperson. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.
34. A poll shall be taken as the chairperson directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
35. A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the chairperson directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the results of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least 15 clear days notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
36. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
37. Subject to the provisions of the Act a resolution in writing signed by the duly authorised representatives of the requisite majority of the Full Voting Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at any general meetings shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a meeting of the Company convened and held. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document.
38. Members and members of any committee (including the Nominating Committee) may participate in or hold a meeting of the Company or any committee (as the case may be) by means of conference telephone or other suitable electronic means agreed by the Members (or members of any committee as the case may be) in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. Participation by such means shall be deemed to constitute presence in person and business so transacted shall be effective for all purposes as that of a meeting of the Company or a committee (as the case may be) duly convened and held with such persons physically present.

VOTES OF FULL VOTING MEMBERS

39. Each Full Voting Member shall be entitled to 1 vote at a general meeting of the Company.
40. Full Voting Members shall be entitled to appoint up to three delegates and up to three alternate delegates to represent it at general meetings and the names of such delegates shall be submitted to the Company Secretary in the following form or as near to it as circumstances will admit, or in any other form which is usual or which the Board may approve:-

Multiple Sclerosis International Federation

43. In the event of the resignation, incapacity or death of a delegate who shall be the sole representative of a Full Voting Member and therefore its Voting Delegate, a successor shall be appointed by such Full Voting Member and the name of such successor shall be submitted to the Company Secretary in the form prescribed in Article 42 above.

44. No Full Voting Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless it has paid the prior year's membership dues in full.
45. No Full Voting Member shall debate or vote on any matter in which it is personally interested without the permission of the majority of the Full Voting Members present and voting.
46. Any Full Voting Member entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another organisation (in which case a duly authorised representative of the organisation shall be appointed as proxy and named in the prescribed form under Article 47) or person or persons (whether a Member or not) as its proxy or proxies to attend, speak and vote (by show of hands or poll) instead of it.
47. The appointment of a proxy shall be signed for and on behalf of the Full Voting Member by a duly authorised officer of the Full Voting Member and shall be in the following form or as near to it as circumstances admit, or in any other form which is usual or which the Board may approve:-

Multiple Sclerosis International Federation

We [Full Voting Member's name and address] being a Full Voting Member of the above-named Company hereby appoint and in default the appointment of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

- (2) No appointment of a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 3 months from the date of its execution.
 - (3) In calculating the periods mentioned in Article 48(1) no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.
- 49. In Article 48 "address" in relation to electronic communications, includes any number or address used for the purposes of such communications.
 - 50. An appointment of a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to vote on a show of hands, to demand or join in demanding a poll.
 - 51. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
 - 52. A vote given or poll demanded by a Voting Delegate shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the determination was received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
 - 53. A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an appointment of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous cessation of existence of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the cessation of existence or revocation of the Full Voting Member shall have been received at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise and on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

THE BOARD

- 54. The number of Trustees shall be not less than three but (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution) shall not be subject to any maximum.
- 55. The first Trustees shall be: George Loudon, Sarah Phillips and Robert Inchyra, who shall be deemed to have been appointed under the Articles. Future members of the Board shall be appointed as provided subsequently in the Articles.
- 56. Except to the extent permitted by Article 6, no Trustee shall take or hold any interest in property belonging to the Company or receive remuneration or be interested otherwise than as a Trustee in any other contract to which the Company is a party.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

- 57. Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board who may exercise all the powers of the Company and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Company and are not by statute or by these presents required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting. No alteration to the Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Board by the Articles and a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Board.

58. The Board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.
59. The Board shall have power from time to time to make such regulations as it may deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Company and the affairs thereof; as to prescribing classes of and conditions of membership and the rights and privileges of Members; as to the duties of any officers or servants of the Company; as to the conduct of the business of the Company by the Board or any committee or sub-committee and as to any of the matters or things within the power or under the control of the Board provided that the same shall not be inconsistent with the Articles.
60. The Board and the Company in general meeting shall have power to repeal or alter or add to any regulations and the Board shall adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring to the notice of Members all such regulations which shall be binding on Members.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF TRUSTEES

61. Subject to Articles 55 and 66, Trustees shall only be appointed at a general meeting of the Company on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee.
62. Those Trustees appointed at a biennial general meeting or at a general meeting shall retire at the next biennial general meeting or general meeting being not less than 18 months after their appointment.
63. No person shall be appointed or re-appointed a Trustee at any general meeting:
 - (1) unless he or she has attained the age of 18 years;
 - (2) in circumstances such that, had he or she already been a Trustee, he or she would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 69 (disqualification and removal of Trustees);
 - (3) unless he or she is recommended by the Nominating Committee.
64. Not less than 40 clear days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting notice shall be given to all persons who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person who is recommended by the Nominating Committee for appointment or re-appointment as a Trustee at the meeting. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he or she were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Company's register of the members of Board.
65. Subject as aforesaid, the Company may from time to time in general meeting increase or reduce the number of Trustees and determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number shall go out of office and may on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase.
66. (1) In the period between two biennial general meetings, the Board shall have the power, on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, to appoint a maximum of three Trustees.

- (2) In the event of the removal or disqualification of a Trustee in accordance with Articles 69 and 70 or the resignation, incapacity or death of a Trustee, a successor to serve the remainder of his or her term may be proposed by the Nominating Committee and appointed by the Board.
 - (3) A Trustee so appointed in accordance with Article 66.1 and 66.2 shall serve until the next biennial general meeting of the Company at which the appointment of Trustees is to be considered. A Trustee appointed in accordance with this Article may be re-elected or re-appointed for additional full terms in addition to this interim appointment but if he or she is not re-appointed at such biennial general meeting he or she shall vacate office at the conclusion of that meeting.
67. Subject as aforesaid, a Trustee who retires at a general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-appointed.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

68. (1) The Nominating Committee shall comprise such persons, subject to the following, as the Company in general meeting shall decide by a two-thirds (to the nearest whole number rounding up) majority.
- (a) The Nominating Committee shall comprise no fewer than 7 persons and no more than 11 persons.
 - (b) The President and Chief Executive Officer shall be entitled to attend and speak (but not to vote unless also a member of the Nominating Committee) at all meetings of the Nominating Committee.
 - (c) The chair and other officers (if any) of the Nominating Committee shall be elected by the members of the Nominating Committee.
 - (d) The Company in general meeting may make such regulations and impose such terms and conditions as it may from time to time think fit.
- (2) The Nominating Committee shall invite nominations, and make recommendations to the Company in general meeting, for candidates to serve as officers (including the President, Treasurer and Secretary (if any)), Trustees and members of the Nominating Committee.

SUSPENSION OF TRUSTEES

69. A Trustee may be suspended from office for a maximum of sixty days pending an investigation of an alleged breach of the Company's rules and regulations. The decision must be taken by a committee of the Board made up of the President, the Secretary and, if such an officer is appointed, the Deputy chairperson of the Board which unanimously considers it is in the interests of the Company to do so. If there is an alleged breach of the Company's rules and regulations by a Trustee who is one of the abovementioned officers, the Treasurer will be added to the committee which decides on the suspension. The Trustee, in person or through a representative, is entitled to hear the grounds on which the suspension is contemplated and to make representations to the committee before the decision is taken. During any period of suspension the Trustee shall not exercise any of the powers of a Trustee and the committee may require the Trustee not to contact or deal with any officers, employees, advisers or other contacts of the Company and may exclude the Trustee from the premises of the Company.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

70. A Trustee shall cease to hold office if he or she:-

- (1) ceases to be a Trustee by virtue of any provision in the Act or is disqualified from acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or is otherwise prohibited by law from being a Trustee;
 - (2) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own affairs;
 - (3) resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company (but only if at least 2 Trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect);
 - (4) is absent without the approval of the Board from all their meetings held within a period of 12 months and the Board resolve that his/her office be vacated.
71. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of sections 168 and 169 of the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution remove any Trustee before the expiration of his or her period of office.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

72. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Board may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their proceedings as they think fit but in any event shall meet at least once a year. The Board shall meet within 30 days of receipt by the Company Secretary of a written request for such a meeting, signed by not less than one-half of the Board. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.
73. A simple majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of the Board.
74. The Board may act notwithstanding any vacancies but, if the number of Trustees is less than 3, the continuing Trustees may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies in accordance with Article 66 or of calling a general meeting.
75. The President shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he or she is present. But if there is no Trustee holding that office, or if the President is unwilling or unable to preside or is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Trustees present may appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
76. The Board may delegate any of its powers or the implementation of any of its resolutions to any committee provided that:-
- (1) the resolution making that delegation shall specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on such committee (although the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number);
 - (2) the composition of any such committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Board and may comprise such of their number (if any) as the resolution may specify;
 - (3) the deliberations of any such committee shall be reported regularly to the Board and any resolution passed or decision taken by any such committee shall be reported forthwith to the Board and for that purpose every committee shall appoint a secretary;
 - (4) all delegations under this Article shall be recoverable at any time;
 - (5) the Board may make such regulations and impose such terms of conditions and give such mandates to any such committee as it may from time to time think fit;

- (6) for the avoidance of doubt, the Board may delegate all financial matters to any committee.
77. All acts done by a meeting of the Board, or a committee shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Trustee or member of the committee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee or a member of the committee (as the case may be) and had been entitled to vote.
78. A resolution in writing, signed by all the Trustees for the time being or all the members of any committee shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or (as the case may be) such committee duly convened and held (and for this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document in the same form and each signed by 1 or more of the Trustees and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature).
79. Trustees and members of any committee may participate in or hold a meeting of the Board or any committee (as the case may be) by means of conference telephone or other suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. Participation by such means shall be deemed to constitute presence in person and business so transacted shall be effective for all purposes as that of a meeting of the Board or a committee (as the case may be) duly convened and held with such persons physically present.

OFFICERS

80. (1) Save as otherwise appointed by the Company at general meeting in accordance with Article 79(2) and subject to the provisions of the Act and to Article 6, the Board:-
- (a) may appoint or engage the Company Secretary and may appoint an assistant or deputy Company Secretary;
 - (b) may appoint or engage such other officers or servants as they shall see fit;
 - (c) may appoint 1 or more of their number to the unremunerated office of managing trustee or to any other unremunerated executive office under the Company; and any such appointment or engagement may be made for the purpose of discharging such duties and upon such terms as the Board determines and the Board may dismiss any officer or servant so appointed or engaged.

- (2) Subject to the recommendation by the Nominating Committee in accordance with Article 68(2), the Company at general meeting:-
- (a) shall appoint the President, Treasurer and Secretary (if any);
 - (b) may appoint such other officers as it shall see fit;

and any such appointment may be made for the purpose of discharging such duties and upon such terms as the Company at general meeting determines and the Company at general meeting may dismiss any officer so appointed.

81. Any appointment of a Trustee to an executive office shall terminate if he or she ceases to be a Trustee.

MINUTES

82. The Board shall keep minutes:

- (1) of all appointments of officers made by the Board; and
- (2) of all proceedings at meetings of the Company and of the Board and of committees and sub-committees of the Board including the names of those present at each such meeting; and all minutes of meetings of the Company shall be certified by the President and the Secretary (if any) and circulated to the Full Voting Members and to such other Members as the Board may direct.

THE SEAL

83. The seal (if any) shall only be used by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Board authorised by the Board. The Trustees may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a Trustee and by the Secretary (if any) or by a second Trustee.

BANK ACCOUNTS

84. Any bank account in which any part of the assets of the Company is deposited shall indicate the name of the Company. The Board shall be empowered to resolve upon the operation of any such bank account according to such mandate as it shall think prudent and fit from time to time.

ACCOUNTS AND RETURNS

85. Accounting records sufficient to show and explain the transactions and assets and liabilities of the Company and otherwise complying with the Act shall be kept at the Office or such other place within the United Kingdom as the Board think fit.
86. Subject to the requirements of the Act, the Company may at a general meeting impose reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner at and in which the books and accounts of the Company may be inspected by Members and subject to those restrictions the books and accounts shall be opened to inspection by Members at all reasonable times during usual business hours.
87. The Trustees must comply with the requirements of the Act and of the Charities Act 1993 as to keeping financial records, the audit of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Charity Commissioners of England and Wales of:-
 - (1) annual reports;
 - (2) annual returns;
 - (3) annual statements of account.

NOTICES

88. Notices under these Articles may be sent by hand, or by post or by electronic communication except that a notice calling a meeting of the Board need not be in writing.
89. The only address at which a Member is entitled to receive notices is the address shown in the register of members and "address" in relation to electronic communications includes any number or address used for the purposes of such communications.
90. Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received

- (1) 48 hours after being sent by electronic communication or delivered by hand to the relevant address;
 - (2) 2 clear days after being sent by first class post to that address;
 - (3) 5 clear days after being sent by second class or overseas post to that address;
 - (4) on being handed to the Member (or, in the case of an organisation, its authorised representative) personally; or, if earlier,
 - (5) as soon as the Member acknowledges actual receipt.
91. A Member present in person at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where necessary, of the purposes for which it was called.
92. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of a notice of a meeting by a person entitled to receive a notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

INDEMNITY

93. Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Trustee may otherwise be entitled every Trustee or other officer or auditor of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favour or in which he or she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him or her by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company, and against all costs, charges, losses, expenses or liabilities incurred by him or her in the execution and discharge of his or her duties or in relation thereto.
94. The Board shall have power to resolve pursuant to Article 5(19) to effect indemnity insurance notwithstanding their interest in such policy.

Role description: MSIF President and Chairman of the Board

Key Responsibilities

In addition to the responsibilities for board members outlined in the Board Terms of Reference, the role of the President and Chairman is to:

- 1 Work in partnership with the Chief Executive, to ensure that MSIF has a clear vision, mission, values, and strategic direction and that MSIF, the Board and the Chief Executive are focused on achieving these.
- 2 Lead the Board in supervising the work of the Chief Executive and in overseeing the execution of the Federation's strategy.
- 3 Take the lead on ensuring that the Board fulfils its duties and responsibilities for the proper governance of MSIF.
- 4 Work in partnership with the Chief Executive to ensure that there is an effective working relationship between board members, staff and volunteers.

Election

The Council of Members elects the President and Chairman on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee. He or she may serve a maximum of three two-year terms.

Preferred characteristics

- 1 He or she should have an understanding of multiple sclerosis and preferably be a person affected by MS (i.e. a person with MS or a close relative of one).
- 2 He or she should have a profound and demonstrated commitment to improving the lives of people with MS all around the world.
- 3 He or she should have served at a senior level within the charitable MS community (i.e. on the national board of a member MS organisation and/or on the Board of MSIF).
- 4 He or she should be prepared to actively lead the Board by example and to unite the members in their common goals.
- 5 He or she should encourage and support all Board members from different countries and cultures.
- 6 He or she should be an internationalist and able to merge the interests of the diverse elements of the MS community in the pursuit of the MSIF's goals.
- 7 Experience as a Chairman in the voluntary health sector would be an advantage.
- 8 He or she should have an understanding of, and preferably some skill and experience in, the workings, managing and governance of a federation.
- 9 The Chairman shall have the time and commitment for the role. He or she should have access to the required financial resources to carry out his/her duties; however, the Nominating Committee will use its discretion and not exclude suitable candidates from consideration on this basis.
- 10 He or she would be expected to play an active role in supporting the Secretariat and should be prepared to travel at least twice a year to MSIF meetings.

Duties and tasks to fulfil the key responsibilities

1. Work in partnership with the Chief Executive to ensure that MSIF has a clear vision, mission, values and strategic direction and that MSIF, the Board and the Chief Executive are focused on achieving these.
 - 1.1 To ensure that MSIF is governed in the long-term interests of present and future beneficiaries in keeping with its charitable objects.
 - 1.2 To ensure that MSIF has an appropriate strategy for effectively delivering its aims and that there is clarity about MSIF's objectives at all levels.
 - 1.3 Leading the Board, and through the Chief Executive, to ensure that plans set by the Board support, and are adequate for, the delivery of MSIF's aims.
 - 1.4 To ensure that the Board monitors performance against such plans.
 - 1.5 To ensure that the Board regularly reviews the specific significant risks for MSIF, deciding the level of risk it is prepared to accept without being risk averse, and the effectiveness of the process in place for identifying and managing risk.

- 1.6 To ensure that there is regular, effective communication with MSIF's members and others about MSIF's aims, work and achievements, including information that enables them to measure MSIF's success in achieving its purpose.
- 2. To lead the Board in supervising the work of the CEO and in overseeing the execution of the Federation's strategy
- 2.1 To ensure, with the Board, that there is a governance and financial policy framework within which the Chief Executive shall manage the Federation.
- 2.2 To ensure that decisions taken at Board meetings are implemented and that MSIF is managed in accordance with the decisions made by the Board.
- 2.3 To ensure that the Chief Executive reports regularly to the Board on progress towards the delivery of strategic objectives, business plans and annual targets.
- 2.4 To ensure that the Chief Executive's annual objectives and targets support the achievement of the strategic objectives/priorities.
- 2.5 To ensure that the Chief Executive receives regular, constructive feedback on his/her performance in managing MSIF and support in meeting annual and longer term targets and objectives.
- 3. To take the lead on ensuring that the Board fulfils its duties and responsibilities for the proper governance of MSIF
- 3.1 To ensure that board members understand and comply with their legal duties and regulatory bodies
- 3.2 To ensure that MSIF has a governance structure that is appropriate to an organisation of its size/complexity, stage of development, and charitable objects.
- 3.3 To ensure the Board governs effectively by:
- ensuring it keeps responsibility and oversight where powers are delegated to Officers and Committees;
 - ensuring that there is effective communication between Officers, Committees and the Board;
 - ensuring that the Board's delegated authority is recorded in writing by means of terms of reference, role descriptions and reporting procedures and that these and the membership of committees are reviewed regularly.
- 3.4 To ensure that board members keep under review both the performance of the Board as a whole and their own individual contribution.
- 3.5 To ensure the Board functions effectively by:
- in partnership with the Chief Executive, developing an annual programme of board meetings and ensuring that relevant agendas and papers are prepared in good time.
 - chairing board meetings effectively, ensuring full board member participation.
 - ensuring that the Board takes decisions collectively in the best interests of MSIF and within its authority.
 - recognising and managing any conflicts of interest or loyalty, ensuring that collectively, the Board is independent in its decision-making.
 - ensuring that board meetings are properly recorded, and the Board is transparent and accountable about how decisions are made.
- 3.6 To work closely with the Board and Nominating Committee to identify skills, backgrounds and perspectives required on the Board; seeking new board members from diverse sources; developing a succession plan and ensuring that the Board has access to relevant external professional advice and expertise.
- 3.7 To work with the Nominating Committee to ensure that there is a systematic, open and fair procedure for the recruitment or co-option of Board members, future Chairs of the Board and future Chief Executives (with a view to succession).
- 3.8 To ensure that all members of the Board receive appropriate induction, advice, information and training (both individual and collective).
- 3.9 In close consultation and in partnership with the Chief Executive to agree respective roles in representing MSIF and acting as spokesperson at public functions, public meetings and to the press/media.

- 4. In partnership with the Chief Executive, to ensure that there is an effective working relationship between board members, staff and volunteers.
- 4.1 To be the primary focal point for communication between the Board and the Chief Executive, ensuring that appropriate reporting lines are maintained. It should be noted that the Chief Executive is responsible to the Board as a whole and not to any one individual board member or sub-group of board members.
 - 4.2 To be responsible for ensuring that the Board focuses on its governance role and that individual board members interact with staff on individual projects as delegated by the Board.
 - 4.3 In partnership with the Chief Executive to check that the right items reach board meeting agendas by asking whether the item is a fundamental issue for MSIF; whether it has policy implications and whether there is enough time and space for the Board to explore key issues and reach well-considered decisions.
 - 4.4 In partnership with the Chief Executive to ensure provision of accurate, timely and clear information to the Board in order to make informed decisions.
 - 4.5 To ensure that there are regular one to one meetings with the Chief Executive when the Chairman and Chief Executive can talk openly, discuss progress and problems, agree expectations of each other, plan the Board's annual programme together and prepare for meetings together. There should be no "surprises" between Chairman and Chief Executive at board meetings.
 - 4.6 To ensure that the Chief Executive's performance is reviewed annually and that there is a two-way discussions which includes the effect of the Chairman's and Board's performance on the Chief Executive's and MSIF's performance.
 - 4.7 To foster a Board culture built on trust, openness, confidence and expectations of appropriate board member behaviours.

Approved by the Board, April 2018

Role of the Vice Chair

In addition to the responsibilities for board members outlined in the Board terms of reference, the role of the Vice Chair is to support the Chair generally in all the functions of the Chair as required.

Specifically, the Vice Chair will preside at board meetings when the Chair is absent for whatever reason and, in the event that the Chair is unable to fulfil the remainder of his/her term, step into their role, until the next Council meeting.

There is no assumption that the Vice Chair will automatically succeed to the Board Chair.

Election

The Board appoints the Vice Chair from within the Board by a simple majority. The Vice Chair serves for two years until the next board elections. The Board may renew this appointment. He or she may serve a maximum of three two-year terms.

Key Responsibilities

1. Understand the responsibilities of the Board Chair and be able to perform these duties in the Chair's absence.
2. Deputise for the Chair if s/he is away at board meetings, committee meetings, other meetings and events.
3. Assist the Chair with matters between meetings.
4. In line with MSIF's governing document (Article 69), participate in a committee of the Board which decides on the suspension of a board member pending an investigation of an alleged breach of MSIF's rules and regulations.
5. Deal with specific tasks or issues as defined by the Chair or Board, for example chairing a committee or work group, or representing MSIF externally.
6. Act as a sounding board for the Chair.
7. Support the Chair and Chief Executive in regularly reviewing individual board meetings and their formats.
8. Work closely with the Chair and the Chief Executive.
9. Participate as a vital part of the board leadership.

Approved by the Board, 28 October 2018

May 2003

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee must define its role as it relates to itself and its operations.

Among these duties and responsibilities are the following:

- Elect and oversee a Nominating Committee Chairperson and define his/her responsibilities
- Build the Nominating Committee
- Develop Committee and Board job descriptions and recruitment plans
- Cultivate interest of potential Board members
- Identify and continuously add to pool of prospective Board members
- Review seniority and performance of Board members
- Solicit nominations for future Board and Nominating Committee members, including from sources other than the national societies

Operational and Procedural Guidelines

These are evolving guidelines to which additions or modifications can be made at any time.

- Review transition and rotation of Board membership to ensure an appropriate number of new members are proposed at each Council meeting and, if the need arises, at Board meetings in the interim period between Council meetings (in view of the guideline that no more than 50% of members on the slate can have served more than six years and, within this group, no more than 25% of the total Board number can serve on the Board for eight years or more).
- Review seniority and past performance.
- Review availability, commitment and willingness to work for MSIF by serving on committees and work groups and attending Board and Committee meetings.
- Ensure diversity of Board membership in terms of:
 - MS constituencies (e.g. people with/affected by MS¹, volunteers, MS society staff);
 - geographic diversity;
 - Age, gender, ethnicity and other relevant characteristics.
- Ensure no single group or organisation has disproportionate representation on the Board.
- Identify Board needs/requirements to ensure necessary ability, skills, expertise and specialities:
For example: legal; financial, such as accountancy, financial planning or management; governance, such as knowledge and understanding of Boards and Committees; fundraising; communications, such as public relations, marketing, branding or information provision; advocacy and campaigning; capacity building; medical and scientific research; management and planning) and ask Member Societies to consider this when proposing candidates.

¹ With the recommendation that the Board should always include at least one person with MS.

Extract from Board's terms of reference:

Board members should:

- understand MSIF's vision, mission, purpose, goals, policies, programmes, services, strengths and needs;
- express commitment to the common cause and mission of MSIF and the MS movement;
- possess knowledge of MS, persons with MS and MS programmes and treatments;
- maintain knowledge of all current MS related developments (medical and otherwise);
- be fluent in English (writing and speaking) and have access to email and/or fax;
- be internationally oriented;
- be willing to travel at no cost to MSIF and commit to attend two Board meetings a year'
- maintain contact with national MS societies and/or the national MS movement in their country;
- be willing to serve on work groups or committees and to work on work group or committee matters between Board meetings;
- consider making an annual contribution and/or raise funds from third parties;
- be a person of character and integrity;
- be a talented, energetic and dynamic person;
- study and understand the Strategic Plan and annual budget and assist in their implementation.

- Search for and identify nominees/candidates to meet identified Board needs/requirements and fulfil Board Terms of Reference.
- Invite nominations from relevant individuals, groups and organisations including past and present Board and Committee members, Member Societies and other sources internal and external to the international MS movement.
- Require that candidates complete a form, reflecting the Board's terms of reference, and submit a 450-word statement of interest² to MSIF.
- Review/assess candidate submissions and interview candidates when necessary.
- Meet to discuss and finalise recommendations for a) each of the MSIF officers (President, Treasurer and Secretary) individually b) for a slate of candidates to be trustees on the Board and c) for members of the future Nominating Committee itself.
- Prepare supporting documents to be distributed to the Council/Board.
- Consult with Council/Board members (which may also be done prior to the finalisation of the slate).
- Submit slate of candidates to the Council prior to Council meeting for approval with a memorandum explaining the Nominating Committee's reasons for the overall composition of the slate.
- If arising, vet candidates for appointment to the Board in between Council meetings according to Article 66 of the Articles of Association.
- Respond to inquiries from Council/Board members.
- Inform, orient and involve new Board members in liaison with the Secretariat.

Certain of these functions may be performed by the Chairperson or may be delegated to individual members or groups of members. Subcommittees can be formed when necessary. All activities should be coordinated through the Secretariat.

Composition and election of the Nominating Committee

Nominating Committee members must be Council delegates (voting or non-voting).

- There will be seven to ten members of the Nominating Committee plus the Chair of the Persons with MS Advisory Committee.
- The MSIF Chief Executive Officer to be an ex-officio non-voting member of the Nominating Committee.

² Candidates would be asked to state why they are enthusiastic about joining the MSIF Board and the skills they would bring; the main challenges facing the global MS movement in the next three years and the key priorities for MSIF; how their skills and experiences would contribute to addressing those challenges.

- No two members of the Nominating Committee will be from the same country.
- The Chairperson of the Nominating Committee is elected by the Committee in their last meeting before the Council. If there is no suitable and willing committee member to take the chair, the outgoing committee would seek a suitable candidate. This person would be part of the slate for the Nominating Committee for election by the Council and endorsed as chair after that by the newly elected Nominating Committee.
- The Committee is elected by a two-thirds majority vote.

Extract from the Board's terms of reference:

The Chair of the Nominating Committee will have the right to be a board member but is not required to accept a Board position.

Term of Office

Nominating Committee membership terms of office reflect that of the Board.

Meeting/Communication

The Nominating Committee meets twice in each calendar year. Communication between the Nominating Committee members is predominantly by email.

These terms of reference are established by the Council of MSIF and may be amended by the Council. They are binding in nature.

MSIF, updated March 2013.

MSIF Board Terms of Reference

- 1 MSIF is a company limited by guarantee, registered in the UK, and a charity regulated by the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

Its board members are collectively and individually responsible for the overall control and strategic direction of the organisation, in accordance with the Articles of Association ('the Articles', the governing document) and other relevant legal and regulatory requirements and the principles of good governance, and for supervising the work of the Chief Executive and overseeing the execution of the Federation's strategy.

2 Membership of the Board

- 2.1 The Nominating Committee is responsible for the recruitment of suitable candidates for the Board and for determining the number of board members, although there must be no fewer than three. The Council of Members elects the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee. Board members are appointed for a two year term. The number of terms that can be served by a board member depends on the nomination process, the judgement of the Nominating Committee and the elections by the Council, following guidelines which stipulate that no more than 50% can have served for more than six years and, within this group, no more than 25% of the total board number can have served for more than eight years.
- 2.2 MSIF recognises the value of a diverse board that reflects a mix of skills, backgrounds and perspectives to support its effectiveness, leadership and decision-making. For example, recruiting board members from different MS constituencies (such as people with/affected by MS, with the recommendation that the Board should always include at least one person with MS); from a broad geographical spread; and with differing skills, life experiences, perspectives, age and characteristics.

The Board composition should reflect a proper balance between different elements of the membership, including large MS organisations and other MS organisations (at least five from each) and 'at large' members being appointed where appropriate with no fixed number, and up to three Chief Executive Officers (CEOs) nominated by the Board's CEO Advisory Group. At all times the Board shall have a minimum of three CEOs elected under one heading or another.
- 2.3 The Council of Members elects a Chair, Treasurer and, if required, a Board Secretary on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee. The President, Treasurer and, if required, the Secretary are automatically members of the Board. Chairs of the People with MS Advisory Committee and International Medical and Scientific Board are automatically members of the Board. The Chair of the Nominating Committee will have the right to be a board member but is not required to accept a board position.
- 2.4 The Board elects a Vice Chair and Chair of the Fundraising Committee from the Board.
- 2.5 The CEO Advisory Group is able to nominate up to three CEOs to the Board including the Chairman of the CEO Advisory Group.
- 2.6 In line with clause 66 of the Articles, in the period between two Council Meetings the Board shall have the power, on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, to appoint a maximum of three board members if the need arises.

3 Meetings

- 3.1 The Board shall meet at least once a year, although board meetings normally take place twice per calendar year. The Board shall meet within 30 days of receipt of a written request for such a meeting, signed by not less than one half of the Board.

- 3.2 There shall be a written record of each meeting, agreed by the Board at the subsequent meeting. Board agendas and a summary of decisions made at each Board meeting will be distributed to all member organisations.
- 3.3 The quorum for a board meeting is a simple majority of the Board, one of whom should be the Chair or Vice Chair, or in their absence a board member appointed by the meeting to chair on that occasion.
- 3.4 Decisions will primarily be taken by consensus, but any member of the Board may request a vote. Transactions arising at a meeting may be decided by a majority of votes. Should the vote be tied, the Chair of the Board shall have a second or casting vote.
- 3.5 Board and Committee meetings may also be held by means of conference telephone or other suitable electronic means.

4 Committees and delegations

- 4.1 The Board may set up Committees and specify which board members should serve on those Committees. The Board may delegate any of its powers to a Committee, but keeps ultimate responsibility and oversight.

5 Staff attendance

- 5.1 The Chief Executive will normally attend board meetings. Other staff may attend at the Chief Executive's discretion and with the Chair of the Board's agreement. The Board may from time to time decide to consider specific confidential items without staff present.

6 Board member roles and responsibilities

- 6.1 The Articles set out MSIF's purposes, the activities it may undertake to deliver those purposes and the powers and duties of the Board. Board members must exercise their powers in strict accordance with the Articles.
- 6.2 Board members must also comply with the key legal duties set out in the Charity Commission Guidance CC3 "The Essential Trustee: what you need to know" as follows:
- Ensure MSIF is carrying out its purposes for the public benefit
 - Comply with MSIF's Articles and the law;
 - Act in MSIF's best interest
 - Manage MSIF's resources responsibly
 - Act with reasonable care and skill
 - Ensure MSIF is accountable.

Board members should also endeavour to reflect best practice in governance.

- 6.3 In summary, the roles and responsibilities of the members of the Board, are to:
- Further the charitable purposes of MSIF for the benefit of present and future beneficiaries, and make sure the organisation, and its aims, stay relevant and valid.
 - Determine MSIF's vision, mission, values and strategic plan, arising from that an annual activities plan and budget and an annual report and accounts, in collaboration with the Chief Executive.
 - Monitor the organisation's performance and delivery.
 - Act always in the best interests of MSIF and its beneficiaries, in accordance with the governing document.

- Take legal and financial responsibility to safeguard and sustain MSIF's assets, resources and reputation.
- Be satisfied that financial information is accurate and that controls and systems of management of MSIF are effective and robust.
- Ensure personal familiarity with MSIF's governing document, other regulatory and legal requirements and operational processes.
- Ensure compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements relevant to MSIF's activities, for example in relation to the UK Registrar of Companies and the Charity Commission of England and Wales, equality, health and safety, employment of staff, money laundering and the proceeds of crime, data protection and fundraising.
- Be accountable to MSIF's stakeholders including the public for the Board's decisions, the performance of the Board and performance of the organisation.
- Serve MSIF as a whole rather than any special interest group or constituency.
- Take responsibility for the appointment and supervision of the work of the Chief Executive.
- Ensure that there are effective controls in place to monitor and review MSIF's finance and administration systems.
- Ensure that appropriate records relating to accounts and financial matters are maintained in the required manner and that they are independently audited.
- Ensure that the main risks to MSIF and its assets are identified and appropriate steps taken to mitigate those risks, and that the process for risk management is regularly reviewed.
- Where money that is not immediately required is invested, ensure that this happens in the most suitable manner, in line with MSIF's investment principles.
- Ensure that there is no personal gain from the office of board member.

7 Expectations of Board Members

Board members are expected to:

- 7.1 Attend Board meetings and meetings of any Committee or Work Group of which they are a member, to prepare fully for those meetings, to engage actively in discussion and decision making, to contribute ideas and constructively challenge, to respect the different viewpoints of others.
- 7.2 Accept collective decisions that have been taken, to exercise collective responsibility and to respect confidentiality where required.
- 7.3 Provide advice and support where necessary between meetings, and undertake special assignments.
- 7.4 Understand and be committed to MSIF's purpose, vision, mission, values, strategy and the global MSIF movement, possess general knowledge of MS, persons with MS and MS programmes and treatments, and maintain knowledge of current MS related developments.
- 7.5 Have such competence in English (writing and speaking) that they are not hesitant and are fully able to contribute and make themselves well understood in English. Whilst welcome, correct pronunciation, grammar or precise spelling are not considered a requirement.

- 7.6 Be an advocate for MSIF and internationally oriented, and maintain contact with national MS societies and/or the national MS movement in their country.
- 7.7 Have the time and commitment to attend two in-person board meetings per calendar year.
- 7.8 Should have access to the required financial resources to attend board meetings; however, the Nominating Committee will use its discretion and not exclude suitable candidates from consideration on this basis.
- 7.9 Act with integrity and in line with MSIF's values, and do what a sense of fairness, ethics, standards of personal behaviour towards the public, fellow board members and employees of MSIF, and personal integrity dictate, even though not necessarily obliged to do so by law, regulation or custom.
- 7.10 Participate in inductions and ensure they remain aware of their duties and responsibilities.
- 7.11 Participate in performance reviews of themselves and of the Board as a whole carried out by the Board Chair and Nominating Committee.
- 7.12 Consider an annual gift according to personal means, participate as appropriate in raising funds, and assist the Fundraising Committee and staff through personal influence with others (corporations, individuals, foundations, etc.).

8 Conflicts of interest

- 8.1 Board members are required to exercise independent judgement at all times, and to declare any conflicts or potential conflicts of interest or loyalty on an annual basis; these will be recorded on the register of interests.
- 8.2 If a board member identifies a potential conflict arising from an agenda item or paper at a forthcoming Board or Committee meeting, this should be flagged at or before the discussion begins on the matter. The board member may be asked to leave the room for that item, unless asked to remain in order to provide information, and not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting or have no vote on the matter.

Approved by the Board, April 2018

MSIF People with MS Advisory Committee (PMSAC)

Terms of Reference

Responsibilities and role

The Committee advises the Board on any issues in relation to the needs and aspirations of people with and affected by MS, in particular:

- Provide advice on any relevant policies, proposals or plans on the Board agenda;
- Provide advice on any other relevant policies;
- Bring issues of importance to people with and affected by MS to the attention of the Board;
- The Chair of the Committee will advise the Secretariat on the selection of recipients for the Wolfensohn Travel Awards;
- Help prepare the People with MS Forum meetings;
- As appropriate consult people with and affected by MS across the movement;
- Support the Secretariat in ensuring and identifying people with and/or affected by MS to serve on all MSIF project/programme work groups.

Composition and election

The Committee will be comprised of Board members with MS and people with MS from within the member organisations, selected by the Chair of the Committee and approved by the Board. Additionally, membership of the Committee will include someone with experience of giving care to a person with MS³. The Committee has a maximum of seven members, of which at least two should be from outside the Board. All committee members will serve a maximum of three two-year terms.

The Chair of the Committee will be appointed by the Board on the proposal of the Chair of the Board. The Chair of the Board cannot be a member of the Committee.

The Chair of the Committee will be an ex-officio member of the Board and of the Nominating Committee.

Selection of members must take the following criteria into account:

- Be a member of the MSIF Board and/or fulfil an active function in a member society (for example on the board, in a committee or as a staff member); and live with MS;
- The aim should be for the Committee to include persons with MS with different levels of disability and from different world regions;
- The Committee should include a wide perspective of other people affected by MS;
- Ability to communicate effectively in English;
- Willingness to travel to attend the PMSAC and MSIF Board meetings;
- Support from their national MS society, both financial and otherwise.

Meetings

PMSAC meets at least once a year in person and coincides with the MSIF Board meeting schedule. Other meetings will take the form of video conferences and additional meetings may be called as required.

Meetings are timed so that results inform the meetings of the MSIF Board.

People with and Affected by MS

The aim is to have people with and affected by MS serving on all MSIF committees and project working groups. In line with the movement's strategy, such people will be supported by their national MS society.

The Committee and MSIF Secretariat have over time been in touch with other people with and affected by MS who are willing to be consulted or provide advice on particular projects, activities or subjects, such as the production of information materials, strategies for campaigns etc.

³ Agreed by the Board, October 2013

The Committee and the Secretariat will continue to build a pool of people with and affected by MS (both active on working groups etc, and other people willing to be contacted) for consultation and advice both for the Committee, the Secretariat, the Board and any other MSIF Committees. This pool may contain several persons from one country. There is no obligation for all member organisations to appoint people in this pool.

Participants in the pool do bring their own experience. They also bring their experience and insights from the organisation they may be affiliated to, but do not represent them.

Participants in the pool will be invited to attend the biannual People with MS Forum.

MSIF will consult appropriate officials in member societies on the selection of people to invite to the pool. Once a year a list of all people participating in the pool will be shared with the Committee, the Board and all CEOs.

Secretariat Liaison

A designated member of the Secretariat provides administrative support for the Committee, including providing relevant information such as relevant minutes of other committees and working groups.

The nature of these terms of reference, agreed by the Board of MSIF, is binding.

Approved by the MSIF Board, 26 October 2012.

Updated to reflect inclusion of caregiver representative on Committee as agreed by the Board in October 2013.

Amended and approved by the Board, 3 April 2020

CEO Advisory Group

Introduction

The CEO Advisory Group offers MSIF member national MS society CEOs a means of communication and interface between each other and with the MSIF Board.

Aims

The CEO Advisory Group aims to:

- Commit member national MS society resources in the implementation of projects and programmes that support MSIF in fulfilling its aims and objectives
- Communicate information and best practice on issues relevant to national MS society CEOs
- Contribute to the development of MSIF policy and practice
- Consult on current and potential MSIF projects
- Initiate the development and implementation of new MSIF projects
- Nominate three MSIF Board members from within the CEO Advisory Group

Composition/Membership

The CEO (or in their absence the senior staff member or equivalent) of every MSIF member society is a de facto member of the CEO Advisory Group.

Chairman election

The CEO Advisory Group elects its own Chairman for a two-year term, renewable up to three times. CEO Advisory Group members are invited to nominate themselves or another member, with the permission of the person they are nominating. The CEO Advisory Group then votes on the nominations. Only those members from Full Member societies in good standing (i.e. fully paid membership dues) should be considered.

Chairman Responsibilities/Role

The Chairman will draft CEO Advisory Group meeting agendas with the Secretariat, agree the final agendas, chair the CEO Advisory Group meetings and report to the Board.

The Secretariat will assist and support the Chairman's communication with the CEO Advisory Group and to the Board.

The Chairman ensures that the CEO Advisory Group operates in pursuance of its aims.

Board Election

The CEO Advisory Group Chairman sits on MSIF's Board. In addition every two years the CEO Advisory Group elects two other members to serve on MSIF's Board with the CEO Advisory Group Chairman. CEO Advisory Group members are invited to nominate themselves or another CEO, with the permission of the person they are nominating. The CEO Advisory Group then votes on the nominations. Only those members from Full Member societies in good standing (i.e. fully paid membership dues) should be considered.

Those nominated must:

- Be in a position to contribute to current MSIF projects and programmes
- Have already contributed
- Support the future development of MSIF

Of course other members of the CEO Advisory Group may be nominated as candidates for the Board either by their national MS society or 'at large'.

Meeting/Communication

The CEO Advisory Group meets twice in each calendar year, usually directly before a meeting of the Board.

Communication between the members of the CEO Advisory Group is predominantly by email.

A quorum of 8 is necessary for proposals and recommendation to be approved.

Term of Office

There are no term limits for CEO Advisory Group members. Each MSIF member society CEO remains a member of the Advisory Group for the duration of his/her term as the member society CEO.

The CEO Advisory Group Chairman is elected every two years with a maximum of three two-year terms.

April 2007

International Medical & Scientific Board (IMSB)

Terms of reference

Purpose:

The primary purpose of the IMSB is to provide advice on the research and clinical activities of MSIF.

Roles and responsibilities:

- To help in assessing the feasibility of, inform and/or advise on MSIF involvement in and support for relevant and appropriate international research projects.
- When needed, to evaluate relevant and appropriate external proposals and requests for MSIF funding to support international research projects.
- When needed, to evaluate MSIF's research awards and grants applications.
- Provide advice as required on the research or clinical aspects of MSIF projects such as:
 - Atlas of MS – provide data and act as national contact persons for the Atlas
 - MSIF Research News
 - Other relevant publications
 - MSIF website
 - Improved access to healthcare projects
- To contribute to global consensus statements and clinical guidelines
- To provide a link between MSIF and the medical advisors of its member organisations, and to help facilitate global collaboration in research, clinical advice, and related collaboration in fundraising amongst MSIF's member organisations
- To form a formal professional link between MSIF and other relevant and appropriate international organisations (such as the WHO, WFN, ECTRIMS, ACTRIMS, LACTRIMS, etc.).
- To generate a two-way exchange of information between MSIF and the MS scientific community.
- To help involve the world's leading individuals in the field of MS in the work of MSIF.

Membership:

- MSIF member societies are eligible to nominate up to two IMSB members. It is preferable that one of these two members is the Chair of the national MS organisation's medical and scientific board, or equivalent.
- In countries where there are more than one member society, the organisations will be asked to jointly nominate up to two IMSB members.
- Each MS society with an active research programme can nominate one senior research staff member to the IMSB.
- Additional MS experts active in the MS movement can be co-opted into the IMSB for specific purposes, by the IMSB Chair together with the MSIF CEO

Terms of office for IMSB members are determined by the MSIF member society that nominated them.

IMSB Chair

The IMSB Chair will generally be selected from the IMSB by the MSIF Chair and will be approved and appointed by the MSIF Board. He/she will serve a maximum of three two-year terms.

Deputy Chair

The Deputy Chair will generally be selected from the IMSB by the MSIF Chair in consultation with the IMSB Chair. He/she is responsible for supporting and standing in for the IMSB Chair as necessary. He/she will serve a term of two-years renewable once.

Executive Committee

The IMSB Chair will chair an IMSB Executive Committee that will comprise a maximum of 15 members selected by the IMSB Chair. Members of this committee may be selected from within the IMSB or externally. At least half of the members must be IMSB members nominated by MS Societies. The Presidents of ECTRIMS, ACTRIMS, LACTRIMS, MENACTRIMS, PACTRIMS and RIMS will be offered a place on the Executive Committee. IMSB Executive Committee membership will be on a staggered rotation of up to three two-year terms.

The role of the Executive Committee will be to:

- Monitor relevant IMSB output and ensure that the IMSB, its Work Groups and members fulfil their stated role and responsibilities
- Inform the IMSB membership of activities
- Consider and endorse new member nominations to the IMSB
- Work with the CEO to select and invite appropriate contributors from amongst the IMSB to MSIF project Working Groups
- Lead on evaluation, awarding and monitoring of:
 - McDonald Fellowships (every year)
 - Charcot Award (every two years)
 - Ad hoc research grants

Du Pré Grants Workgroup:

This workgroup is led by the IMSB Deputy Chair and is responsible for evaluating applications for MSIF Du Pré Grants. The IMSB Deputy Chair selects workgroup members from within the IMSB, in consultation with the IMSB Chair, and may occasionally co-opt new members based on specific areas of expertise. These new members will be invited to join the IMSB.

Meetings:

The IMSB meet once in each calendar year during the annual ECTRIMS meeting.

Communication:

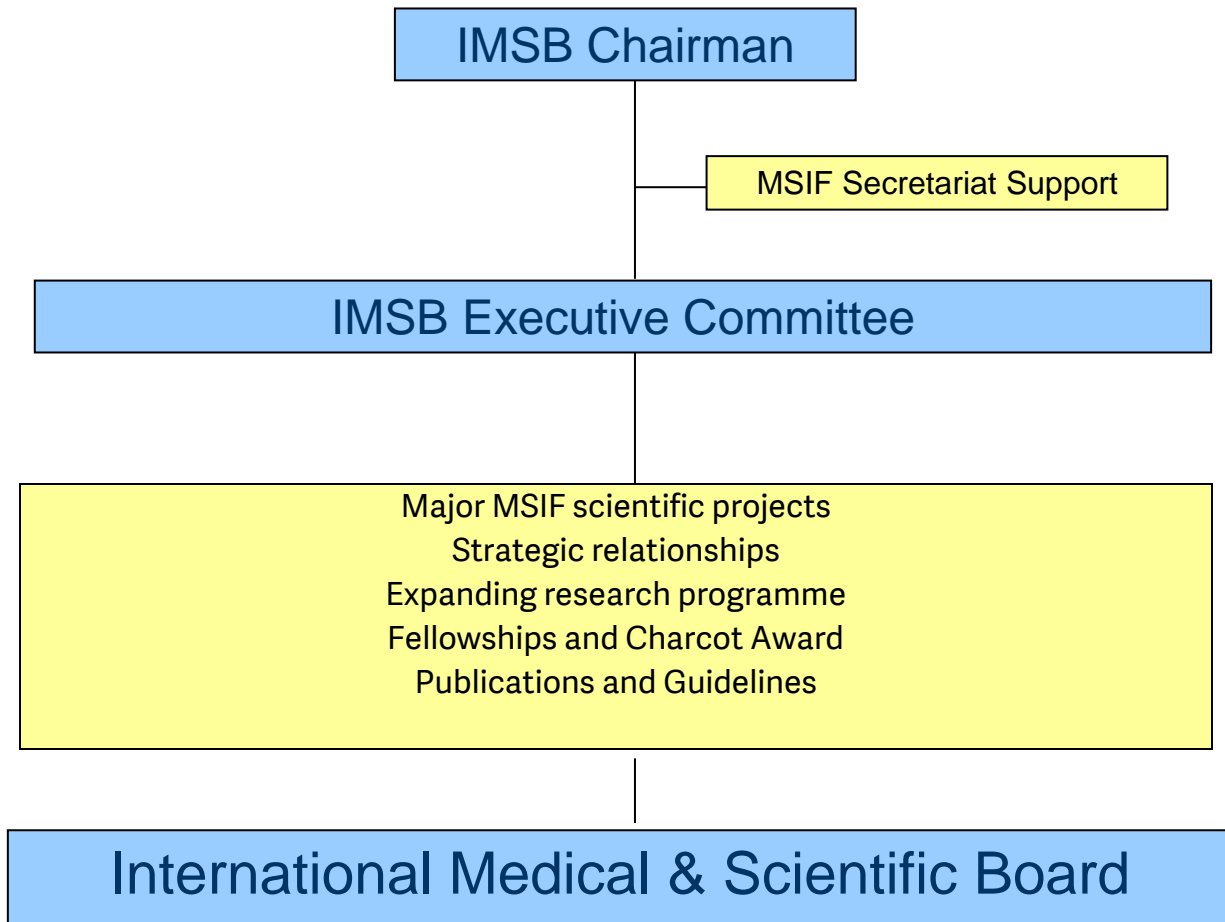

The IMSB and its Executive Committee communicate by teleconference calls and email. The IMSB Chair will meet with the MSIF Secretariat once a month and will produce an annual report prior to the IMSB annual meeting.

A designated member of the Secretariat will provide administrative support to the IMSB Chair and will attend the annual meeting of the IMSB and its Executive Committee.

The nature of these terms of reference, agreed by the Board of MSIF in its meeting of 15 April 2016 is binding.

Amended and approved by the Board, 3 April 2020

Annex 1
IMSB Structure

Du Pré Grants Work Group

1.1 Introduction

These Terms of Reference must be read in conjunction with the International Medical and Scientific Board (IMSB) Terms of Reference.

1.2 Responsibilities/Role

The Du Pré Grants Work Group (WG) will supervise, guide and provide advice on the management of the Du Pré Grants programme and evaluate applications, received every six months, as detailed in the Du Pré Grants Calendar.

The Multiple Sclerosis International Federation (MSIF) Secretariat staff member on the Work Group will provide direct administrative support to the Work Group and its Chairman.

1.3 Composition

The WG will include up to 10 members with the relevant skills and experience to guide the programme, chosen by the Chairman of the WG in consultation with the Chairman of the IMSB.

WG members may include health professionals, national MS society staff members and/or volunteers and people with/affected by MS. The Chairman may invite others to advise and/or join the WG as and when deemed necessary.

Initial WG members include:

Reinhard Hohlfeld (Chairman) Germany

Zoe Burr, MSIF

1.4 Term of Office

WG members will serve up to three two year terms. Every two years (2009, 2011) the WG membership will be reviewed by the IMSB Executive Committee, in consultation with the WG Chairman.

1.5 Meeting/Communication

Most WG communication will be by email and teleconference call meeting. The WG will meet in person at least once a year, the time and place to be agreed by the WG.

1.6 Work Group Chairman

The WG Chairman will be chosen by the Chairman of the IMSB and will be a member of the IMSB Executive Committee. The WG Chairman will approve all Secretariat communication relating to the Du Pré Grants programme, chair all WG teleconference call meetings and amend/approve WG agendas, supporting papers, reports and minutes. The WG Chairman will be expected to report to the IMSB and MSIF Board on the progress of the programme at appropriate meetings.

- a) One member of the Committee will be appointed by the Committee to sponsor or Chair each working party established by the Committee.
- b) The composition of each working party will be at the discretion of the Committee.
- c) All acts and proceedings of each working party shall be fully and promptly reported to the Committee.

7. Ensuring the transparency of the Committee

- a) Minutes of the Committee meetings shall be circulated to all MSIF Trustees and all member organisations.
- b) A copy of the Terms of Reference in force relating to the Committee shall be available for public inspection on the MS International Federation's website and upon request from any member of the public subject to any payment for the reasonable administrative costs incurred.

c) The Committee should consider what the appropriate level of consultation with the wider MSIF membership and stakeholders for each proposal might be in order to ensure transparency.

8. Reporting to the Trustees

a) All acts and proceedings of the Committee shall be fully and promptly reported to the Board.

b) All proposals for standards of fundraising practice must be submitted to the Trustees for approval and shall be subject to any directions of the Trustees as to method and timing of implementation.

9. Alterations to the Terms of Reference

The Trustees approve and may alter the Terms of Reference of the Committee, upon recommendations submitted by the Committee itself or otherwise, but so that no alteration shall be made that would be inconsistent with the objects of the MS International Federation.

10. Interpretation of Terms of Reference

a) References in these Terms of Reference to the Trustees or to actions required of the Trustees shall mean:

i) the Trustees; or

ii) any one or more of the Trustees to whom relevant authority has been delegated.

b) Any Committee already in existence to which these Rules apply shall be deemed to have been established and constituted in accordance with these Rules, subject to any directions of the Trustees relating to actions to be taken by the Committee to ensure compliance with these Rules.

c) Any question as to the interpretation of these Rules shall be determined by the Trustees.

11. Conflict of Interest

Committee members shall avoid any situation that may give rise to a conflict of interest between them, the MS International Federation and the Fundraising Committee.

Members shall make full and immediate disclosure to the Committee if any such conflict should occur and disqualify themselves from the relevant elements of Committee business.

The nature of these terms of reference, agreed by the Board of MSIF in its meeting of 15 April 2016 is binding.
