 - (2) by at least 2 Full Voting Members as represented by their Voting Delegates or their proxies; or

34. A poll shall be taken as the chairperson directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

35. A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the chairperson directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the results of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least 15 clear days notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
36. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
37. Subject to the provisions of the Act a resolution in writing signed by the duly authorised representatives of the requisite majority of the Full Voting Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at any general meetings shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a meeting of the Company convened and held. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document.
38. Members and members of any committee (including the Nominating Committee) may participate in or hold a meeting of the Company or any committee (as the case may be) by means of conference telephone or other suitable electronic means agreed by the Members (or members of any committee as the case may be) in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. 3.3.2 Board code of conduct

MSIF Trustee Code of Conduct

As the MS global movement, our core value is that people affected by MS are at the heart of everything we do, shaping decisions and driving positive change. This means that:

- ✓ We listen and act on the expertise and experience of people living with MS
- ✓ We create a Federation where when one of us wins, we all are winners, because it all helps to support people with MS

movement is:

As a Board of Trustees, the wider movement looks towards us, as leaders, to be role models and to embody these values. This means

- ✓ We seek to make our values real, demonstrating them through our individual behaviour, and through our collective behaviour as a Board.
- ✓ We act with the highest levels of integrity including standards of fairness, ethics, and personal behaviour with regard to the public, fellow board members and employees of MSIF and across the Federation
- ✓ When we act as Trustees of MSIF, we contribute and make decisions serving the best interest of MSIF, regardless of other loyalties, special interest group or constituency that we may have.
- ✓ We agree to operate to this code of conduct, and to continuously hold ourselves to it, to the best of our ability.

MSIF Trustee Code of Conduct

Collaborative

We are strong because we work together, inspiring each other, sharing resources, ideas and influence.

We actively learn from each other, sharing information and knowledge openly and transparently with people from all parts of our movement, to leverage our global capacity

We make time to involve others, to establish trust and to build relationships, assuming best intentions

We invite constructive challenge and scrutiny from each other, because we know that makes for better decisions and outcomes

Inclusive

We are open and inclusive, embracing the richness of diversity and experiences.

We actively seek, respect & want to understand opinions and experiences different from our own. We value different countries, contexts, disciplines or sectors, irrespective of role or status of the person who makes them

We actively and continuously develop our skills and competence in working across cultures and across disciplines. We welcome challenge to prevailing assumptions and cultural bias

We disagree without being disagreeable

Driven

We are strategic and determined, acting with urgency to find solutions with and for people affected by MS, wherever they live in the world.

We work with urgency and purpose, push boundaries and encourage ambition and innovation to get the best possible outcomes for people with MS

We face up to difficult and controversial topics and to real life pressures. We are pragmatic and rigorous in prioritising our work

We personally stand behind the decisions that the Board reaches as a collective, and we demonstrate this through our words and actions

What we do!

What we do not Tolerate!

Not participating, or staying silent when we feel the consensus is leading to the most popular rather than the best approach

Using knowledge as power, and withholding useful information which could be helpful

Creating unnecessary competition, so that for every winner there has to be a loser

Considering diversity as an option, something that is just "nice to have" and not worthy of our time and patience

Developing exclusive subgroups, politicking, and indulging in disparaging conversations or negative gossip about other people or groups behind their back

Using language in a way that makes others feel disrespected, diminished or bullied, even where this is unintentional e.g. talking quickly, using complex English or slang

Being aggressive or egotistical for ourselves or our organisation; allowing professional differences to become personal animosity

Avoiding difficult conversations or decisions

Being so committed to the strategy that we cannot flex when circumstances change
